

Christopher McKelvey
Evidence of Teaching Proficiency

		"Your overall rating of the Teaching Assistant"		"Value of the sections justified time and effort"
		Median	Mean	Median	Mean
Econometrics	C. McKelvey	8.50	8.28	8.00	7.79
Winter 2001	Department Average	7.78	7.56	7.50	7.25
Microeconomics	C. McKelvey	8.00	7.72	8.00	7.50
Spring 2001	Department Average	7.89	7.69	7.68	7.46
Econometrics	C. McKelvey	9.00	8.53	9.00	8.34
Spring 2002	Department Average	7.88	7.59	7.70	7.45
Econometrics	C. McKelvey	9.00	8.58	9.00	8.57
Winter 2002	Department Average	7.59	7.37	7.47	7.17
Econometrics	C. McKelvey	9.00	8.41	9.00	8.31
Fall 2002	Department Average	8.00	7.37	8.00	7.10

* Students rate both the teaching assistant and the section on a scale from 1 to 9, where 9 is the highest possible score.

Students also evaluate their teaching assistant's knowledge of the material, concern with student learning, preparation, organization, accessibility, and communication skills. As an example, please find my scores on all categories enclosed for my most recent course (Econometrics, Fall 2002).